

Chincoteague Nation Fall Campout

Camp in a Tree House!

Science Contest for all ages • Nation Hike to Gapland State Park

Pavilion for rain or shine fun • Close to Historic Harpers Ferry

The Tree House Camp at Maple Tree Campground

October 1-3, 2010 • 20716 Townsend Road, Gapland, Maryland 21779

The Campground: Twenty acres of beautiful woodland, backed up to the Appalachian Trail on South Mountain provide an ideal setting for camping and hiking. Unique lodging includes Tree Houses and Tree Cottages. Camp Facilities offer newly remodeled indoor bathrooms, private outdoor showers, pavilion and a camp shop. The best of both worlds: cabin camping with cook your own meal flexibility and fun. The girls will love the cottages and tree houses!

Tribes will be assigned one or more cottages or tree houses. Tents can be set up near most cottages for overflow or traditional camping. Cook your own meals by tribal custom ~ each site is equipped with fire circles, picnic tables and charcoal grills.

Agenda: Friday arrival, Check in time 2:00pm

Saturday: Science Contest, Hike to Gapland Park, Lunch Provided by Nation
Chance to visit Harper's Ferry, Antietam or other historic sites

Sunday departure, Check out time 1:00pm

Cost is $60 per family, money due by August 29th to your Chiefs

Directions: From I-270 North to Frederick, head West on US-340. Proceed 15 miles to Rt. 67 North towards Boonsboro (5 miles), then right onto Gapland Road (1.5 miles), left onto Townsend Road. Camp entrance 4th lane on right.

More information at <http://www.thetreehousecamp.com>